leave the beaten path to make travel dreams come true

Are you up for a rally-like tour? As we'll be leaving the public roads behind us, this means you'll have to buckle up and work 'hard' behind the wheel every once in a while. Be prepared for an unforgettable experience!

All our expeditions are comprised of highlights only. Not just as far as experiences go, but that includes the route and challenges as well. You will return home with a suitcase filled with priceless travel memories and new skills.

Do you dream of a worldwide adventure, but with the comforts of home? Experience the freedom of independence with a Bliss Mobil rental expedition truck. Join one of our adventurous self-drive expeditions with an endless number of challenges, highlights and unforgettable moments. The unique character of our expeditions makes it unlike any other journey you have experienced!

unique product

After successful Bliss Mobil expeditions in Northern Africa, Southern Africa and Scandinavia, Bliss Mobil and Overland Travel have once again combined their knowledge, experience and specialism to introduce a unique product: adventurous expeditions with a rental vehicle.

As of 2020 there will be 10 rental expedition trucks available with a 13 Foot High Bed Bliss Mobil unit presented on a well-equipped Mercedes-Benz Atego 1018 4x4; extremely suitable for remote and independent travel. This means that everyone can now realize their travel dreams. Carefree.

You make your own journey, but you also benefit from the pleasure and convenience of traveling in a small group, with an experienced guide.

expeditions for rentals

From spring 2020 you can join one of the exclusive expeditions for rental vehicles. All these expeditions are catered to the needs of Bliss Mobil adventurers, including: ultimate convenience, a select group, professional guidance, offroad training and technical back up and support.

get a taste of the benefits

In short, the expedition trucks are a perfect solution for those who want to get a taste of the many benefits of the high quality units and expeditions, without any obligations or logistical hassle. This way you can make the best use of your sparse vacation days and are able to visit remote areas you can't visit on your own. The only thing we expect from you, is to enjoy this unique adventure.
