ACCOMMODATION

We will spend the night at the most unique locations.

DRIVING AS A CONVOY

During this trip we will have to drive as one convoy a number of times. Think of difficult off-road terrain. In many cases you can decide yourself whether you will travel independently (based on coordinates) or that you will travel together or join us. At the end of each day you will meet each other at the accommodation/location for the night. Of course you will also meet regularly en route and support and help is always nearby.

COMMUNICATION

In general, mobile telephone coverage is reasonable to good. Our travel guides are equipped with a satellite telephone so they can always be reached. As a participant you can choose to take a similar device with you yourself. Overland Travel can provide you with the right device. A 27MC radio makes communication between vehicles possible in an easy way. Ask Overland Travel for the best device recommendations.

NAVIGATION

You navigate by using the road book and the maps supplied. In addition, you can choose to navigate by GPS. Garmin devices are most suited, for example the GPSMAP 276cx. You can also use navigation apps on your telephone and/or tablet. Skout or Skobbler, available in the app store, are navigation apps Overland Travel mostly uses.

PASSPORT EN VISAS

For adventurers outside the EU inform at Overland Travel.

TRAVEL VACCINES

Check with your general practitioner which travel vaccines are recommended at the moment. In many cases (full or partial) compensation by your health insurance is possible.

EXCEPTIONAL CASES

Of course you must make sure to travel well insured. This this applies to both your health and vehicle insurance. If you cannot continue your trip due to technical or medical problems, Overland Travel will assist wherever possible with repatriation.

SHIPPING

Overland Travel has the contacts and relations to take care of the arrangements when it comes to shipping. That means that we facilitate and coordinate, so that you can fully enjoy the journey. Shipping is custom. You will receive a calculation of the shipping services to your desired destination.
